The campaign for the defense of Chairman Gonzalo deepens and broadens

We are very pleased to make known that the campaign for the defense of the life of Chairman Gonzalo, the greatest living Marxist-Leninist-Maoist on the face of the Earth, Head of the world proletarian revolution, Head of the Communist Party of Peru, the red fraction of the International Communist Movement, is deepening and widening as shown by three recent developments:

First, it is very good news that the Maoist comrades of China signed the Joint International Declaration for the Day of Heroism, as it was drafted and in which we reaffirm:

“The explosions of the masses are like the heralds of the new era of revolutions that has opened up. Because it is the masses that have made, make and will make the great transformations, it is from those glorious hands that the new will always come forth to guide humanity. Because with their armed hands they conquer and defend the new Power, Power, the central task of the revolution. The masses cry out, they demand of us communists that we lead them.

...The world reaction is aware of the danger that lurks....

Imperialism and world reaction are sinking in the midst of greater collusion and strife, and in the midst of their agony they make bloody swipes and with the help of revisionists and opportunists of every color seek to avert the revolution ...

The fact that reaction takes advantage of opportunism and revisionism in its desperate reactionary way out of the crisis and to postpone the revolution, is one more political proof of the maturity of the objective and subjective conditions for the revolution throughout the world. That proves that revolution is the main historical and political trend in the world today....

The revisionist and capitulationist right opportunist line in Peru, as the head of the new revisionism at world level, which denies the semi-colonial and semi-feudal character of the countries of the Third World, saying that these have ceased to be so because of "neo-liberalism" applied since the beginning of the 90's of the last century and in the case of Peru, Furthermore, because with the people's war the semi-feudal relations were destroyed and Peru has become dependent capitalist and "that the present struggle is for democratic rights, a new constitution and sovereignty", these renegades deny what was established by Maoism and Gonzalo Thought, that as long as the democratic revolution is not completed with the seizure of power in the whole country, the domination of imperialism, bureaucratic capitalism and semi-feudalism will not have been destroyed. Moreover, expressly in the case of Peru, where reaction has reestablished the old power, it has reestablished the old relations of production, that is, semi-feudalism, and in the countries where it acts with the development of bureaucratic capitalism it evolves the semi-feudal base, it does not destroy it. The new revisionism denies the revolutionary situation in development at the international level. That is to say, it denies the revolution as the main tendency, denies the new great wave of the world revolution, denies the strategic offensive of the world revolution, denies the main contradiction, denies the democratic revolution, denies the land problem in the countries of the Third World and therefore denies the world proletarian revolution. They are counterrevolutionary renegades”.

Secondly, that the same Maoist comrades in China have issued the important statement, Commemorating the Centenary of the Founding of the Communist Party of China, Communist Group (Maoist), where they conclude, that:

“Progressive elements in China need to actively study and deepen the understanding of Marxism-Leninism-Maoism, primarily Maoism, and the universally valid contributions of Chairman Gonzalo. We need to put our focus on the national and international situation, have understanding of the situation of the World Proletarian Revolution, realizing that the most important task at this time is the reconstitution of the militarized Communist Party of China. Organizations should be clearly guided by Marxism-Leninism-Maoism, mainly Maoism, organized on Maoist principles, against all forms of revisionism and deviationism, reject eclecticism and sectarianism. Maoists need to combine theory with practice, forge close links with the masses and our own experience in practice, attach importance to criticism and self-criticism.”

Third, in northeast China, near a factory, graffiti was found with the slogans “Long live Chairman Mao!” on the first line and “Long live Chairman Gonzalo!” on the second and third lines:
